To reflect both updated estimates of projected ADA in 2016-17 and the change in COLA from 0.47% to zero, proposed appropriations for selected categorical programs will be decreased compared to the January proposal by $24.3 million.

Federal Programs

There was a small uptick in funding for some of the major federal education programs. Title I, which supports services to assist low-achieving students enrolled in the highest poverty schools, will receive a $138 million increase, of which $29.1 million is one-time. Special education base grants will increase by only $41.3 million, of which $5 million is one-time. Migrant education programs, which support services to meet the needs of highly mobile children, receive a $14 million increase, of which half is one-time funding. The other news at the federal level is the release of the Ue0(r) 9 (e) 5 4 5 (l) 6 (e) 1 (v)] TJ m /T
